Dear Friends,

I write this letter not long after all the excitement of the Platinum Jubilee festivities! It was wonderful to come together as communities in a way that has not really happened since before the pandemic. Whilst the weather wasn't perfect, I think it's safe to say that there were plenty of varied opportunities to celebrate the long and faithful reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth.

For many of us, she is the only monarch we have known, and has been a constant figure throughout all the changes that have taken place, from political to personal, from national to local. Her longevity is certainly impressive but, more than that, for me it is her steadfast commitment to her role that is exceptional. Yes, she is insulated from many of the challenges and difficulties faced by the average man or woman in the street - she doesn't know what poverty feels like, has not had to cope with the relentless demands of a young family or elderly relative, hasn't lacked social or medical care at any time.

She has, though, known family breakdowns, scandals, and devastating personal loss and grief when loved ones have died - and she has experienced them not just in private but right out there in the public eye, for all to see and all to have an opinion on. Most of us will know how easy it is for our words and actions to be misinterpreted, be taken out of context, cause hurt when none was meant, make a situation worse when all we intended was to make it better!

For the Queen, her every action, every public or overheard word, is up for analysis, dissection and interpretation. Assumptions are made, sides are taken, and soon we are all piling in with our assessment and judgement.

Yet despite this constant scrutiny, the relentless demands of always being Queen - never just a face in the crowd, but the face the crowd has come to see - despite all this, she has remained faithful to her role as our monarch, has made it her life's work, dedicated herself completely to serving her country.

And she has been faithful to her work, because she has profound faith in the God who called her to serve, and anointed and commissioned her. Her faith is part and parcel of who she is in a deeply personal sense, of course, but also in the role she has lived out. She has had the strength to go on, to remain true to her calling only because she understands that God is with her, guiding, strengthening and upholding. So although it must at times cause her deep pain and distress, it is not the judgement of the world that matters to her, but rather the judgement of God. She knows herself to be his beloved child, a disciple of Christ, and whatever the difficulties faced and criticisms heard, she can be confident that he knows her completely, all the secrets of her heart, and the truth of her intentions.

Each of us is called by God, just as she is - each of us, like her has a role to play in building his Kingdom. If we can undertake our callings, and live out our roles, whatever they are, half as well as the Queen, then this country and the whole of creation will be a better place because of it.

With every blessing

Miranda

Our first T@2 was held on Monday 6th June and the next one will be held on Monday 4th July from 2pm until 3.15pm at St Mary's Church, Welford. It was set up initially for anyone going to collect school children at the end of the day to enjoy a quiet time with friends over a cup of tea or coffee before doing "the school run".

We are testing out the need for this service and want to open it up to anyone who just wants to enjoy the refreshments and adult company.

Do feel free to join us, all will be made welcome.

Refreshments are free unless you want to make a donation.

If you have any questions about this opening, or wish to volunteer to help with the refreshments please contact Kairen on 01858 575331

Welford WI June 2022

The June Meeting of Welford WI, presided over by Denise Cattell with Denise Bott again acting as Secretary, was attended by 28 members. Instead of the business of the meeting following the singing of Jerusalem the speaker, John Wood was introduced. He gave an interesting and entertaining talk on the Ladies who made us Laugh. He gave a potted history of some of the most successful comediennes of the second half of the 20th Century, starting with Joyce Grenfell and ending with Victoria Wood (no relation!) His talk clearly demonstrated that good humour is timeless. The meeting then recognized the special birthday of long-standing member Jean Tyrrell.

During the business Denise spoke of the schedule of the cakes to be made for the Cynthia Spencer Hospice, the tombola stall at the Sportsfield Charity Fundraiser Saturday 3 July and the Pre-loved Clothing Fair 16 July. Members were reminded of the planned visit to The Holy Sepulchral Church in Northampton.

The competition for Royal Memorabilia run by Ann Thorington with prizes provided by Denise Cattell, was won by Jean Baker with Christine O'Reilly 2nd and Julie Newman 3rd. The raffle organized by Sue Lees was won by Viv Journeaux, Janet Mills and Ann Thorington.

The speaker next month is Judith Morris on Life Changing De-cluttering and the competition is a Household Tip.

Service Schedule Developments

From August, I am delighted to say that we are returning to our pre-Covid pattern of a Benefice Service each month on the first Sunday. This will rotate around the parishes alphabetically, and it will be lovely to regularly worship and share in fellowship together once again. Note that the time is being slightly tweaked to 10.30am. Zoom services have been a wonderful resource when in-person worship has not been possible, but will no longer take place as a matter of course, except in months with a fifth Sunday, or on special occasions.

The reinstatement of the Benefice service means other services on the first Sunday will be moved to later in the month. So Welford's 6pm Evensong moves to the third Sunday, Marston Trussell's 6pm Evensong to the fourth Sunday, and Clipston's Holy Communion moves to the fourth Sunday, at 11am.

I am conscious that there has been a good deal of chopping and changing, but hope that we can now settle into a reasonably secure pattern!

With every blessing,
Miranda
