Dear Friends,

After the cold days and the dark evenings of winter I love this time of year. The days are getting longer and occasionally a warmer afternoon hints that spring may be just around the corner. Across the benefice early flowers are just beginning to come into bloom. As I write this the churchyard at Naseby is carpeted white and gold with snowdrops and aconites and by the time this magazine is published in March daffodils will be fully in bloom. Seeing the carpets of snowdrops I am always amazed at how many tiny variations there are between individual snowdrops and how much more beautiful a great clump of snowdrops is than one flower blooming on its own. I think that communities and churches can be a bit like that too. Each one of us is a unique individual in the same way that no two snowdrops seem to be exactly alike and our communities and churches are far more vibrant and beautiful when we are all able to flourish together.

Easter is particularly early this year so throughout March we will be marking Lent which started in the middle of February. Lent is a season which reminds us that we are mortal, reminds us that we are part of this beautiful, fragile, world and also reminds us that each one of us is unique, precious and loved by God. Lent is a season which reminds us that we, like this world, may be fragile or broken and Lent reminds us that sometimes our thoughts and actions have caused the brokenness that we can see in ourselves, in other people and in the world around us.

Many people will keep Lent as a fast. Some will give up something they enjoy for the season, so that when they take it up again after the joy of Easter that special treat will seem even sweeter or more enjoyable. Some people will use the money that they have saved by giving up that special treat by donating it to charity, or use the time they have saved by giving up a hobby or pastime to volunteer to help others in some way. Lent is a time for quiet reflection, an opportunity to spend time sitting in the presence of God, a time to look honestly at ourselves in Gods presence and to think about how our lives may need to change before this world and ourselves can be restored and made new by the resurrection power of Easter.

Through the winter when the ground is frozen hard by frost it seems as though everything is dead and it seems almost impossible that the spring flowers will ever begin to break through the hard earth. Sometimes when we look at our lives or the world around us it seems as though everything is dark and hopeless and there is no hope of anything ever getting better. Travelling through Lent and into Holy Week we are invited to remember Jesus suffering and death and we are reminded that he is with us in our grief. Easter Sunday this year is the last day of March and we will meet in churches across the benefice to celebrate Jesus resurrection, to remember that Gods love which is stronger than death breaks through even the most difficult and painful of situations and to share in Jesus resurrection life.

My prayers are with you all as we travel together through the season of Lent and draw closer to God and I look forward to seeing you at Easter to celebrate the resurrection

Easter Garden Competition

Task: Choose a base which is no more than 30 x 30 cms or 30 x 40cms (own choice of material but it needs to be reasonably stable) and design and build a 3D garden for Easter. We would like you to build an Easter garden (scene) any parts of the Easter story can be included. from Palm Sunday to Easter Day. Maybe you want to represent the story of Palm Sunday and the crowd waving palm branches, or the overturning of the money lenders in the temple, or the betrayal of Jesus or the washing of the disciples feet, the Last Supper, or Good Friday or finally the resurrection of Jesus or simply your view of the Easter garden. The parts of the Easter story can be found in can be found in Matthews Gospel chapter21 v 1-17, ch 26 -ch 28 - v10LMark ch11 v1-10, ch 14-16LLuke ch 19 v 29-48, ch 22 . 24LJohn ch 12 v 12-19, ch 13,ch 18- ch 20.

Your entries should be brought to St Marys church by Friday 22nd of March and left on the table in the childrens corner or if you are a pupil at WSSES I will collect them on 25th or 26th from the School office. Or arrange delivery with Kairen. Each entry should have a completed entry form with it and these can be obtained from WSSES or the back of church, or from the website or via email to me. The competition is for children, adults and families, any organisation groups, anyone in fact!

Enjoy this challenge and having your contribution displayed over

Easter in St. Mary Church, Welford Church.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM WADS

On May 29th., 30th., and 31st. we are presen ng the play "We Happy Few" wri en by Imogen Stubbs. It is based on a true story of a group of women, from various backgrounds, who came together to take excerpts from classic plays around the country, during WW2. It is very funny, but also has moments of sadness. It is 10 years since we last presented a straight play. We hope you will support us. It will be a great evening's entertainment.

Mailing list ckets go on sale on 26th February.

The Easter Message of Hope

Someone once wrote: Totally without hope one cannot live. To live without hope is to cease to live. And I believe there is a great deal of truth in those words.

In the difficult and often confusing world in which we live today, hope, for many people, is something that seems to be short supply. In fact, I would even go so far as to say that in a world of pain, grief and sorrow, of complex family relationships, of problems at work - alongside many other hardships of life causing sadness, loneliness and depression - hope, for many people, has died a death!

But hope, I believe, is one of the key Christian attributes and one of the most important gifts we can give to the world today.

Nothing brings hope back to life like Easter. For the Easter message gives us hope in a bewildering world and hope to face the uncertainties of the future. This special day never arrives without its refreshing reminder that there is life beyond this one: True life. Eternal life. Glorious life. Those who live on the 'outside' of hope need an injection of hope (a hope transfusion perhaps!) and Easter certainly gives it.

The Easter message is well known - there is no need to prolong it, complicate it or try to explain or defend it. The facts speak for themselves:

Jesus said He would be in the heart of the earth for three days and nights (Matthew 12:40) Later, He said He would suffer ... be killed, and be raised up on the third day (Matthew 16:21)

Betrayed by Judas, He was placed under arrest, hurriedly pushed through several trials and declared guilty - first of blasphemy and then of treason (Luke 22:70;

23:24) Finally, all the disciples left Him and fled (Matthew 26:56)

Alone and forsaken, He endured the torture of scourging, the humiliation of insults and mockery and the agony of that walk to Golgotha (Mark 15:15-22)

The horrors of crucifixion followed, leaving Him suspended for six excruciating hours - the last three of which were spent in eerie darkness that fell over the whole land (Mark 15:33). Then - He died. (Matthew 27:50; Mark 15:37; Luke 23:46; John 19:30)

Two men, Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, took Him down from the cross, prepared the body for burial and placed it in the garden in a new tomb. (John 19:38-41) Because He had predicted, After three days I am to rise again, the chief priests and the Pharisees had the tomb secured by a large stone, set a seal on the stone, and arranged for a Roman guard to watch over the tomb. (Matthew 27:62-66)

Before dawn on the third day, a miracle occurred. When astonished people visited the tomb that morning, they found the stone rolled away and the body gone. They were asked by angels, Why do you seek the living One among the dead? He is not here, but He has risen just as He said. (Luke 24:5-6; Matthew 28:6)

I cannot fully explain all that happened on that first Easter day in this short message, but the simple fact is that there is something magnificent, therapeutic and reassuring about Easter morning - Hope. And this hope in the resurrected Christ silences the empty message of sceptics and cynics alike. How? Because the evidence of the resurrected Christ can be found in the testimony of many thousands of people who have had their lives transformed by the indwelling presence of Jesus through a personal trust and faith in Him. Our identity, at this time of Easter celebration, is strengthened as we stand together and proclaim: Alleluia! Christ is risen - He is risen indeed. Alleluia! This hope can be with us every moment of our life. A HOPE transfusion awaits us, it happens every Easter Sunday make sure you don't miss it this year, guaranteed to change your life!

With every blessing in Jesus' precious name

Welford W.I. February Meeting

On a very rainy and windy evening 30 members and 1 guest braved the elements and were welcomed by President Denise Bott. After the singing of Jerusalem, the January minutes were read and signed. The charity total stands at £1,214.44 and a cheque for £1,100 will be presented to Welford Educational Trust at the March meeting.

A list was passed round for suggestions for the 2024 charity together with the duty and committee lists.

The next craft afternoon is £Carry On Knittingøon February 26th. The coffee meeting will take place on the 22 nd February at Blend. There are 21 for the lunch at the Pytchley on April 11 th . Thanks to Sue Walton, an enjoyable skittles evening was had by all. The next one will be at The Black Horse, date t.b.a. County outings were pointed out to Middleton Hall on the 17 th April and Springfields Outlet Shopping on the 30 th April.

Subscriptions at £48.00 are due in March. Contact Viv Journeaux for details of bank transfer or cheque.

The speaker, Susie Lickman, who runs a plant shop, Windowsills in Market Harborough, gave a short summary of how she came to be selling plants and gave us plenty of hints, especially on over-watering!!! She talked about the many plants she had brought for sale and answered questions from the floor. She was thanked by Maureen James. Delicious refreshments were provided and served by Jean Baker, Mary Crowther and Sue Wilson. The competition for a plant pot organised by Val Jackson for A. Thorington was won by Val Jackson with Lynne Sharpley 2 nd and Sue Wilson 3 rd . The raffle organised by Julie Newman was won by Anne Wing, Jane Baker and Sue Wilson. The meeting closed at 9.15 p.m.

The March Meeting is the Annual General Meeting and the speaker is Martin Grant, a REMAP volunteer. The competition is a decorated egg. All are welcome.
