Dear Friends

For me and my family this year has brought many changes including the unexpected privilege of being asked to cover ministry within the Naseby group of churches while you are still looking for a new vicar. Over the past few weeks I have enjoyed being able to lead worship in nearly all of the churches in the group. As I have been so warmly welcomed into the many different communities which make up this benefice I have found myself reflecting that the different village communities seem to be as different as their incredibly beautiful churches. Thank you all for making me so welcome, thank you for the opportunity to lead you in worship and thank you for giving me this chance to pray with and for you.

Somehow November always feels like a month of reflection and looking back. The evenings seem longer and darker after we put the clocks back at the end of October and throughout the month the days seem to get noticeably shorter. In the church calendar November seems to be a month full of remembrances. It starts with All Saints day when we remember those who have gone before us as Christians and give thanks for their lives. Then comes All Souls day when we remember people who we have known and loved and who have died. In many churches this is marked with a service at which candles are lit and in this benefice there is a service at Clipston to remember the people whose funerals have been held in any of the churches in the benefice throughout this year as well as those who died some time ago but for whom we still mourn.

Following this on 11th November and on the Sunday after, at services at war memorials and in churches across the benefice, we hold various acts of remembrance. At these we remember those soldiers, sailors and airmen from the villages in our benefice who died in the two world wars, and in the many conflicts since, and we also remember in our prayers all those whose lives have been changed forever by armed conflicts.

Away from the busyness and excitement of Christmas and New Year the long dark evenings of November can be a time to look back on our own lives over the past year and to reflect on all that has happened to us whether good or bad. Perhaps this November could be a time when as Christians we may want to consider where we have noticed God's presence in our lives throughout the year. Perhaps it is a time to think about what we have learned through the year's many and varied experiences or a time to notice how our faith has grown and developed throughout the year.

November often ends with the beginning of Advent and a chance to begin to look forward as God's plan to heal our broken world and broken relationships begins to unfold. This year because of the way that Christmas falls on a Monday we will have to wait until December for Advent Sunday but I am already very much looking forward to getting to know you better over the weeks and months ahead as we discover together what God has planned for me and for you as individuals, as churches and as a benefice.

With best wishes,
Clare

It's competition time

As the winter months draw in we are going to be running a competition, brought about by my trip down memory lane, Blue Peter and the stunning Tracy Island of old! (Ask your parents if you are not sure what I am talking about.)

Using the box part of a shoe box (about a ladies shoe size 6-7) as the base we would like you to build a diorama (scene) of one of the parts of the Nativity story. Maybe you want to depict Mary and Elizabeth talking together when the angel has visited Mary, or maybe you like sheep and shepherds and want to make a flock of sheep and some shepherds—then there is the nativity itself and the visit from the 3 wise men. The story can be found in Matthew's Gospel chapter 1 verse 18- ch 2 verse 12 as well as Luke chapter 2 verses 1-20. You can use any kind of art/craft/textile/ music etc that you want and make it as simple or as detailed as you wish, and we will be looking for creativity. There will be prizes for the winning entry in each class as well as a small gift for everyone that enters and these will be awarded at a service near to Christmas (TBA ó see December Parish Magazine)

To make it fairer there will be different age groups. There will be a category of ðfamily entryö, when anyone in your family can take part ó parents, grandparents, siblings, pets (?)—then the age range classes of pre-school, Year 1/2, Year 3 / 4, Year 5/6 and Secondary age. You can enter more than one class, if you fit both sets of criteria.

Details have been made available through WSSS and each entry must be accompanied by an entry form which will tell you where to deliver your creation to, how to name it and when the entries will be needed, these will be available through school, and other avenues no later than 30 th November.

Any questions please do ask. Let's flood our village with evidence of the ðReason for the Seasonö. Kairen

Calling all hand sewers for a secret mission

It's nearly that time of year..ho ho ho
If you would like to help make some Christmas gift bags for a regular Secret Santa event, I am looking for about 5 volunteers (obviously if there are more volunteers it lightens everyone's load). The work will all be using felt and various embellishments, ribbon, simple embroidery etc and does not necessarily need to include any machine stitching.

Please contact me by 6 th November by phone 575331 or by email Kairen.ball@gmail.com if you are able to help. I will cut out all the parts and will provide all the materials. I would aim to get the kits to you 2-3 days after you volunteer and require them to be returned asap, but no later than 3 rd December.

As always I am grateful for any help that can be offered. Kairen

Calling all people who can't hand sew but who would like to volunteer to be part of a secret mission

Perhaps you read the accompanying article calling on the help of hand sewers for a secret mission and were disappointed that hand sewing is not your forte? Never fear there is a way you can be part of this secret mission. The gift bags will be filled with a few small items for Christmas and beyond and of course we need to purchase the materials to make the gift bags themselves. Could you help by donating some money with which we could purchase materials and gifts? We would be so grateful if you could help with this local mission and you can give your donation either to Kairen or Gordon Ball, Gordon Temple or Julie Newman, but please put your donation in a sealed envelope indicating who the gift is from and your telephone number. If you don't want to give your contact details, then just mark the envelope for Santa's Secret Mission and we thank you in advance for your generosity.

If you work for a company that would like to donate very small corporate gifts to our recipients then please contact me to see if the gifts are size wise appropriate for the gift bag. Thank you very much in advance for your generosity.

Naseby Benefice needs YOU!

Welford W.I. October Meeting

The President, Denise Bott, welcomed 27 members and one guest and after the singing of Jerusalem, the September minutes were read and signed. The Nearly New Sale raised £177.53 for our charity and the table at the Northampton WI Craft Fair also raised 380.05. A small number of things were on sale and raised a further £27.00. The County AGM will be on the 26th October and Viv Journeaux is our delegate. The standing orders and Accounts were passed round and voted on successfully. The cakes for the Brownies coffee morning on the 21st October are to be delivered at 10.30. The first Coffee Club meeting will be at Louisa's Place on 23rd October with further meetings to be planned. Christine O'Reilly sent round the menus for an evening meal at Casa Nostra in Market Harborough on 29th November at 6.30. A card went round for soup, puddings and helpers for the Walk on 4th November. The December meeting is to be our Party Night and it was decided the catering will entail everyone bringing a sharing plate.

Our speaker, Lesley Clark, a Style Adviser, then gave a lively and informative presentation about what we should be buying for our body shape and buying items that we could match with three other things, thereby keeping our wardrobes smaller and saving money. She was thanked by Sue Lees.

Lovely refreshments were provided and served by Sue Brotherton, Val Morson, Lynne Sharpley and Michelle Wilson. The competition for a mirror, organised by Sue Lees was won by Jane Cottrell with Mary Crowther 2nd and Viv Journeaux 3rd. The raffle organised by Jean Baker was won by Hilary Attwood, Denise Bott and Pauline Matthew. Birthday flowers arranged by Jean Baker were given out and the meeting closed at 9.22 p.m. The November speaker is Julia Doherty on Walking for Mental Health and the competition is A Photo from a Walk. Everyone is welcome.

CHAPEL COMMENT

Free in the Spirit

Neither Orville nor Wilber Wright had a Pilot's Licence. Neither had gone to college. They were bicycle mechanics With a dream and the courage to try to fly. On 17th December 1903 they took turns piloting their 'Wright Flyer' on four separate flights. The longest lasted only a minute, but it changed our World forever.

Neither Peter or John had a Preaching Licence. Neither had gone to Bible College. They were fishermen who, filled with The spirit of Jesus, courageously proclaimed the Good News: 'Salvation is found in no one else, for there is No other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved' (Acts 4,12)

The religious leaders didn't like Peter and John, and they Ordered them to stop telling others about Jesus. Peter said no way, ' We cannot help speaking about what we Have seen and heard' (Acts4, 20)

Save the date

Sunday 10th December in Welford Congregational Chapel Welford in Harmony will be performing a Christmas concert at 3 pm.
